READ:—

The following letter No. 628, dated 8th December 1894, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, to the Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore.

I have the honor to state that some of the respectable raiyats of Kyatanhalli, Seringapatam Taluk, have resolved to form an Agricultural Bank on the same lines as laid down for the Bank at Palhalli. They met on the 5th instant at Kyatanhalli and unanimously resolved to start the Bank and adopted the rules and memorandum of association at the same meeting. The proceedings embodying the same and signed by all the members are submitted herewith.

2. There are now 19 members on the rolls and the rules provided are similar to those of the Palhalli Bank, excepting on the following points:—

Rule 9.—That interest should be recovered at the time of giving the loan.

Rule 12.—That loans on Promissory Notes should not exceed rupees 500.

Rule 22.—If any member repays the loan before the expiry of the fixed period, interest shall be refunded to such member for the remaining period at Rs. 4 per cent.

Rule 23.—A cash balance of Rs. 500 shall be maintained in the Bank, the excess being remitted to Treasury.

3. I beg that the Proceedings may be forwarded to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for registration (the registration fees will be forwarded to the Registrar separately), and that the formation of the Bank may be sanctioned and permission granted to give the Bank advances from the Seringapatam Taluk Treasury, not exceeding in the aggregate (Rs. 19,000) nineteen-thousand for lending to its members.

[Translatation.]

Proceedings of a Meeting held on the 5th December 1894 at Kyatanhalli village, Seringapatam Taluk, for the establishment of an Agricultural Bank at Kyatanhalli, in conformity with the Rules published in the Mysore Gazette, under the scheme proposed on the subject by the Dewan in this year's Dasara Meeting.

Number of Members present, 19.

All present consented to the proposal made by M. R. Ry. Venkatramanaiya that M. R. Ry. Narasimhakrishnamachar should preside at the meeting.

1. Name.—The Bank shall be called the Agricultural Bank of Kyatanhalli in the Seringapatam Taluk of the Mysore District and registered in the office of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies in Mysore, in accordance with the Indian Companies Act X of 1886, and come into operation from the 6th day of December 1894.—Accepted.

2. Articles of Association.—The persons who have signed these Proceedings shall be the members of this Bank.—Accepted.

3. Resolved that the number of members shall, for the present, be 19, and that others who may be declared by the members to be eligible for admission under these Rules may also be taken as members.—Accepted.

4. Members now admitted to the Association as well as those to be admitted hereafter shall each pay an entrance fee of annas 4 and submit also a written application for admission.—Accepted.

5. Five of the members of the Association shall be chosen as Directors for managing the affairs of the Bank and six shall be chosen as members of the Council for supervising the work.—Accepted.

6. Mode of conducting business.—The Directors shall conduct the business of the Bank in conformity with the arrangements made by the Councillors under the Bank Rules.—Accepted.

7. Three of the Directors and not less than five of the Councillors shall form a quorum. The Directors shall attend the Bank's office not less than twice a week and check the business of the Bank in all its branches and note the same in the minute book. The Councillors shall supervise the work once a month, i. e., check all the dealings of the Bank since its last meeting and record suggestions as regards future transactions.—Accepted.

8. Bank's transactions.—The Bank shall carry on its dealings from the deposits made by Government as loans, at 4 per cent interest, as also from deposits made by others at the same rate of interest.—Accepted.

9. Regulation of dealings.—Dealings shall be carried on only between the members of the Association in the manner noted below; the amount of interest shall not be recovered at the time the loan is repaid, but shall be deducted from the amount of loan at the time of its grant.—Accepted.

1. On mortgage of immovable property.
2. On joint promissory notes.
3. On joint instalment bonds.
4. By a system of advances.—Accepted.

10. Interest shall be collected at the rate of 6 per cent per annum in the case of loans under clauses 1 and 3, at 7 per cent in the case of loans under clause 2 (joint promissory) when the amount is within Rs. 100 and at 6 per cent when it exceeds that sum, and in the case of advances under clause 4, one pie per day for every Rs. 20.—Accepted.

11. Loans not exceeding Rs. 1,000 per individual may be granted on the mortgage of immovable property or on personal security, subject to repayment within a period not exceeding 15 months. The amount of the loan shall not exceed ¾ths of the estimated value of the property mortgaged.—Accepted.

12. Promissory notes.—In dealings of this kind loans not exceeding Rs. 500 may be granted on reliable security, subject to repayment within a period not exceeding 6 months.—Accepted.

13. Instalments.—In loans of this kind to be made on the mortgage of immovable property or on joint security, the amount of the loan may extend to Rs. 500, subject to repayment in instalments not exceeding ten.—Accepted.

14. Advances.—Loans not exceeding Rs. 25 may be granted to one person or several persons jointly, subject to repayment within a period not exceeding 90 days. The period allowed for repayment of any loan shall in no case exceed fifteen months including renewals.—Accepted.

15. The liability of a member shall not exceed Rs. (2,000) two thousand, including loans taken by himself as well as those granted to others on his security; or an amount not exceeding ¾ths of the estimated value of his property may be granted on mortgage of immovable property.—Accepted.

16. How to obtain a loan.—Any member desirous of obtaining a loan may apply to the Directors verbally or in writing for the same. In noting down such statements, the Directors shall clearly mention the object for which the loan is raised and the credit, &c., of the applicant and his surety.—Accepted.

17. Both the applicant for the loan and his surety should state the truth regarding their solvency, as also the details of their property, &c., when questioned by the Directors. They shall be held responsible for any falsehood or defects in their statements. The Directors shall, as far as practicable, enquire into the truth of the said statements and thereafter sanction the loan.—Accepted.

18. Accounts to be kept.—The accounts detailed in the schedule, to be hereafter drawn up, shall be regularly kept in the Bank. These are liable to be checked by Auditors nominated by Government every term.—Accepted.

19. Stock in Bank.—Title-deeds and other documents shall be kept only in the Bank's office. Officers authorized by Government and the members of the Bank may inspect these accounts, title-deeds and other documents as well as the cash balance.—Accepted.

20. Disposal of interest.—Interest due on sums obtained from Government or from others shall be paid to them either according to the term fixed or within the time agreed upon with the depositors.—Accepted.

21. Establishment charges shall be defrayed at the close of each month.—Accepted.

22. If the member who has obtained a loan repays it prior to the expiry of the period allowed for repayment, interest for the remaining period at the rate of 4 per cent per annum shall be refunded.—Accepted.

23. Cash to be maintained in the Bank.—All sums exceeding Rs. 500 remaining in the Bank shall be remitted to Government.—Accepted.

24. Object of the loan.—The object of the loan shall be enquired into before it is granted, and if the amount is not spent for the express purpose for which it is borrowed, the same shall be recoverable on a month's notice.—Accepted.

25. Purposes for which loan may be raised.—These shall be restricted to the purchase of manure, seed, cattle, agricultural implements and other appliances, payment of cooly and other charges of cultivation and of kandayam, the maintenance charges of the cultivator during the cultivating season, the redemption of property from hypothecation or mortgage and similar other purposes. The loan shall not be made unless the means for its repayment within the fixed time is seen to exist.—Accepted.

26. Punishment in the case of failure to comply with the terms of the contract. In all cases, a violation of the conditions of the loan will disentitle the debtor from obtaining further loans. This shall be strictly enforced.—Accepted.

27. Reserve Fund.—This shall comprise all surplus profits excluding the Bank establishment charges and interest on deposits.—Accepted.

28. This fund shall be utilized for meeting unforeseen losses sustained by the Bank in its dealings. The members shall not be entitled to the said fund if the Bank is wound up. But it may be used by the members of the Association for a similar Bank in existence, or one that may hereafter be established, or for some other charitable work within the limits of the Bank.—Accepted.

29. Members shall render their services gratuitously. The establishment and other charges shall, as far as possible, be moderate.—Accepted.

30. Time of meetings.—Balance sheets shall be prepared once in every six months and the approval of the General Meeting obtained therefor.—Accepted.

31. Proposition notice.—If any Council member wishes to submit a new proposition, a week's notice shall be given to all the members prior to the meeting.

A. If any member has anything to propose in the General Meeting, fifteen days' notice shall be given prior to the holding of the meeting.—Accepted.

(General),—dated 21st December 1894.

32. Retirement of Members.—If any member is desirous of severing his connection with the Bank, he must present a rajinama to the Directors and obtain the sanction of the Councillors therefor. If the resignation is accepted, the member so resigning will not be responsible for dealings undertaken subsequent to the date of his resignation. His liability extends however for two years thereafter in regard to previous dealings. If the Councillors are disinclined to accept, such resignation, a General Meeting shall be held and the matter disposed of in conformity with the resolution arrived thereat. If one-half of the total number of members do not consent to such member severing himself from the Association, the Association may be wound up.—Accepted.

33. 1. The Bank Office shall be held in Kyatanhalli Mari Dévégauda's house No. 88. Accepted.

2. Narasimhakrishnamachar, Venkatramaniaya, Mari Devegauda and Siddegauda shall be Directors.—Accepted.

3. Venkatakrishnappa, Madri Narasimhachar, Timmappaiya, Timmegauda, Gavigauda and Javaregauda shall be Councillors.—Accepted.

4. Narasimhakrishnamachar shall be the Treasurer and conduct the business of the Bank under orders of the Directors, be in charge of cash, accounts, and documents and carry on dealings.—Accepted.

5. As all the members of the proposed Bank have met and agreed to these resolutions, a further meeting for confirming them is considered unnecessary and these shall be accepted as the Articles of Association and final Rules of the Bank.
